

Schuylkill School and Home Association

Meeting Minutes

October 4, 2017

Agenda:

1. Guest speaker – Operation Focus (Nicole Delson)
Junior and Senior class whether they attend the prom or not. High school is transformed into a theme – Phantom Olympics. 11pm-3am. Kids are safe at school. The event provides food, entertainment (magician, inflatables, cash cab, mechanical bull), prizes (macbook), cash prizes for 1 girl/boy in each year. No cost to attend, but expensive to put it on. Costs about $30K. Prom is Friday May 4. Decorating all day. Donations from community. Upcoming fundraisers – Iron Hill night October 24. Harlem Wizards Sunday January 21, 2018, PAMS Gym 4pm start, gym opens at 3. Tickets on sale soon. You can follow the group on Facebook.
2. President's Report (Cindy Schulz)
3. Principal's Report (Dr. Harmer)
Alex's Lemonade Stand raised about $1050. Teachers made literacy o'lanterns for a contest. Grandparents day is coming up. Tomorrow is 5th Grade camping and weather looks good.
4. Treasurer's Report (Cindy Schulz)
 - a. Monthly update
 - b. Check Writing Campaign – Goal is $7000. Current total is $4500.
5. Committee Updates
 - a. Book Fair (Dana Coleman and Pam Cannon) – Selling gift certificates at Grandparents day. Coin challenge week of 10/16. Book fair starts Nov. 1. Family night on Friday to match up with Bingo night.
 - b. KidStuff Books – Sales are ongoing.
 - c. Winter cap Fundraiser – Goal is to get the hats before the holidays. Final decision as a group.

- d. Other Updates – We had a volunteer list, but they were not necessarily for committee heads.
- e. Restaurant night Infinito's October 19.

6. Other Business (Cindy Schulz)

- a. Dr. Harmer needs flash drive of pictures for Grandparent's Day.
- b. Movie License – 1 year $390 per school. There can be a district-wide license, but it basically costs the same price. Looking into doing a movie night out – Oaks or Colonial
- c. Alex's Lemonade Stand – Leftover lemonade
Offer to homeroom mom's or sell at Bingo Night (November 3).